Started by Superyacht crew, for Superyacht crew. Superyacht Content is a leading digital news and media publication for Superyacht Crew. We provide Captains and crew with the latest Superyacht Crew news, travel updates, career and training advice, and industry business with Superyacht Content Advertising services to reach this audience.

Content Creation / Editorials –

With our selection of talented, collaborative writers from the yachting industry and in-house content creators, Superyacht Content crafts bespoke editorials tailored to every brand. As publishers (and ex – superyacht crew), we know how to use the power of words and more importantly, talk to your audience in the correct way.

Banner Advertising –

Our banner display advertising service allows companies in the yachting industry to market their brand, product, or service to Superyacht Crew using text, images, and video on the SYC website. These ads are positioned on the header, footer, side pages and within articles on our website, as well as, on a rotation on our weekly newsletter.

The Superyacht Content team also provides companies with banner designs.

Social Media Collaborations –

By collaborating on our social media channels, your company has the potential to expand their brands awareness in the Superyacht industry and increase their impressions.

Perhaps there's something else you need?

Our team has years of digital marketing experience and therefore may be able to help your business in other areas. Contact us today at hello@superyachtcontent.com and let's arrange a call to discuss more about you and your project.

With Superyacht crew being the core value of Superyacht Content, our team is now 50% ex-yacht crew, and 50 % marketing specialists. Because of this, we have an insider's view of the Superyacht industry, putting us in a unique position as a team to speak with authority and confidently connect brands and individuals with Captains and Crew internationally.

We understand the importance of value for money and taking the time to learn about our clients' businesses. But more importantly, being transparent with our clients and building long-term relationships.
