About The Yacht

Nobiskrugs former 62m project 794 was spotted transiting the Kiel Canal to the Lürssen shipyard in Lemwerder for completion. This comes after the yacht owners decided to continue the project with the German Shipyard.

It was said that Project 794 is a performance-driven, high-volume yacht, with an Exterior designed by the one and only studio Espen Øino International. Superyacht Cap d'Ail benefits from multiple layers of creative and an expansive exterior deck spaces. These are both paired with a generous open-plan layout, all within five luxurious levels.
