

Off The Beaten Track Superyacht Destinations

Superyachts provide guests, owners and superyacht crew with the opportunity to explore off the beaten track destinations. Geoff Moore, the managing director of yacht sales and charter specialists, West Nautical, shares his top five off the beaten track destinations with us. So keep reading to show your guests a getaway like no other in one of the exceptional locations listed below.

1. Cocos Island, Costa Rica

Image by <http://www.costarica-scuba.com/>

You can't get more 'off the beaten track' than 550km off the shore of Costa Rica. Here lies Cocos Island. With mountainous terrain and over 200 waterfalls, this island boasts breathtaking nature views. And on top of this, aside from Costa Rican Park Rangers, this island is uninhabited.

Surrounded by deep waters, Cocos Island is renowned for its magnificent marine life. Hammerhead sharks, rays and dolphins are regular visitors of the stunning destination. The tropical climate (on average 26 °C) pairs perfectly with a dip into one of the four islands' four bays. It's no surprise PADI has consistently named Cocos Island one of the world's top diving spots.

2. Antarctica Expedition

<https://www.instagram.com/p/BfGndVMAUKH/>

A yacht expedition in Antarctica is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for most people and even in this remote location, your guests can enjoy the luxury of a superyacht charter. Antarctica is truly unique in its landscapes and wildlife. Whether it's trekking across the terrain or ice diving with a specialist instructor, this is the setting for an unforgettable holiday.

3. Central and South America

The majestic wildlife of the Galapagos Islands is unparalleled. On the other hand, Brazil is notorious for its nightlife. What we are trying to say is whatever your client desires, Central and South America are sure to have something that fits the bill.

You might think that areas in Central and South America are hard to reach. However, venturing to these off the beaten track destinations by yacht is easier than ever before. There are many extraordinary superyachts already based in these areas awaiting your arrival.

4. The Virgin Islands

<http://www.instagram.com/p/CAsfYgWHNDW/>

The Virgin Islands offer white-sand beaches, natural seawater pools and coral reefs: It's the ultimate holiday destination.

There's something for everyone to enjoy, whether sunbathing under coconut palm trees or exploring the historic architecture.

This location is difficult to get to without a yacht. So, be the first to transport your guests to this picturesque off the beaten track location and give them a trip to remember.

5. Cuba

Cuba

Cuba's colourful culture and sandy beaches are world-renowned. The picturesque, cobbled streets and colourful architecture are characteristic of the capital, La Havana. It's also the place to be if your guests are looking for a night out like no other. Otherwise, Cuba's shores' endless beaches and clear waters provide the perfect backdrop for catching rays.

For more travel articles like this one, click here.

About West Nautical:

West Nautical sell, charter and manage superyachts from their head office in Newcastle upon Tyne. The business currently employs a team of 21 staff throughout their offices based in the UK, Russia, France and Cyprus.

Since their inception over 25 years ago, West Nautical has become recognised as one of the most respected, trusted, knowledgeable and accountable professional services firms in yachting – mainly due to their relentless determination to act in our clients' best interests. Their approach and attitude are transparent, refreshing, and focused on providing value-added services simply, elegantly, and affordably. Visit our website here – <https://westnautical.com>

For Media enquiries, please contact sarah.mackenzie@westnautical.com.

For yacht charter, sales or management; please get in touch with Managing Director Geoff Moore
Geoff.moore@westnautical.com