

Events in Europe to visit on a Mediterranean yacht charter

Composed of breathtaking scenery and culture, the lively Mediterranean plays host to many of the most famous events in Europe. It is also one of the most exquisite and best-known destinations for yacht charters.

Although the climate is lovely year-round, the summer months are the most favourable to spend cruising the Mediterranean grounds by motor or sailing yacht.

The West Mediterranean is highly acclaimed for its sparkling yachting destinations including the Italian Riviera, the Amalfi Coast, the Cote d'Azur, and the Spanish Balearic islands. The East Mediterranean is notorious for its fabled history and waters. Beloved charter destinations in the East Mediterranean include Greece, Turkey, Croatia, and Montenegro.

On either an Eastern or Western Med Private Yacht Charter, culture vultures and art-lovers will be in heaven. That's because fantastic museums abound close to western ports such as Barcelona and Nice, as well as Eastern stops such as Athens and Istanbul. Anyone chartering a yacht can also enjoy an incredible variety of summer events. Europe-bound foodies will be thrilled with yachting both the West and the East Mediterranean as the onboard chef picks up produce and spices from the local markets. On a Western Mediterranean trip, you can imbibe Spanish cava and Provencal wines in lovely seaside cafes. In the Eastern Med, you'll be surprised by how good the food and wine are, especially in Croatia; Greece and Turkey also have outstanding cuisine. And Italy, as we all know, is the world capital of cuisine.

The Balearic Islands

If you like to shop, you'll be spoiled for choice on both itineraries. Italy is famous for its leather goods, while you'll also find food and art souvenirs in France and Spain. The markets in Greece and the bazaars in Turkey are also a lot of fun.

Last but certainly not least, both itineraries also include historically significant islands, such as Corsica, Sardinia, Malta and Crete, that may be more difficult to reach otherwise.

Using a luxury yacht as hotel accommodation is an excellent way to enjoy exclusive services in privacy but also offers the possibility of hopping ashore for famous events in Europe such as the Formula 1 in Monaco.
