

Six Table Setting Ideas for Halloween Onboard

Halloween is always a fun time, and with only a matter of days to go, maybe you need some table setting inspiration for this festive season. Today we have compiled six ideas for your breakfast, lunch and dinner table settings. From subtle to spooky, we feel there is something to inspire all taste levels on this list.

Breakfast:

Pastel Painted Pumpkins

https://www.instagram.com/p/B3yz0RlAT_9/

There are no rules to say Halloween can't feature a pretty pink pumpkin! The mix of mini and large pumpkins, with pastel shades, flowers and ribbons. This combo creates a delightful atmosphere. Because of the light and lovely feel of this setting, we think it would be a perfect place to eat breakfast on board.

Simple Skeleton Table Setting

Image by:
pinterest.co.uk/pin/154037249743383582/sent/?invite_code=2c46f457a6d64efba18663f78072ec30&sender=318770617283269752&sfo=1

This Skeleton Setting is simple but effective. The white and pink roses give it a light, fresh feeling making it the perfect Halloween setting for your guests' breakfast. Alternatively, have it on the sidebar or as a backdrop to give the whole yacht a Halloween feel. If you have a fun-filled day of Halloween activities, you will be glad to know this table setting is quick to put together and pack away for those super stews!

Lunch:

Earthy Greenery

<https://www.instagram.com/p/CU8G18XvSUL/>

Why not utilize some greenery to create a relaxed feel? The vine grass laid out on a bare wood table, with moss balls and green leaves, gives an earthy tone. Whilst the skull centrepiece and small skeleton hands bring this table setting right on theme. This setting is perfect for a light lunch.

Halloween Gingham

<https://www.instagram.com/p/CU41sW9lSfr/>

Choosing a colour scheme or pattern and incorporating it throughout the decor will make your table setting look extra special! With this setting, the black and white gingham design is subtle and elegant. Everything matches perfectly, from the runner to the ribbons, making this great for a large themed lunch.

Dinner:

Creepy Chic Table Setting

Photo By: The Makerista

If you can use candles onboard, this beautiful candlelit creepy, chic table setting is perfect for your guests' evening meal. Grab your spooky skeleton props, anything gold and plenty of tapered candles, and you will be set to go.

White Monochrome

<https://www.instagram.com/p/CU46ITuMqRB/>

For guests who wish to have a classier spread, we feel that this setting can turn even the spooky season into something elegant! Hollow out your pumpkins and fill them with dried flowers to create a stunning centrepiece. Add this to a monochromatic white setting, and your guests will experience a sophisticated Halloween dinner.

We hope these six table setting ideas have given you some inspiration this Halloween! Don't forget to tag us in your stunning table creations – @superyachtcontent

For the latest Superyacht news and content, go here.